Maggie Morier, Administrative Support Specialist

Hi! My name is Maggie Morier, and I've come to the ITFDC as an Administrative Support Specialist. I hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations and a minor in French, which is great for helping me communicate with my lovely French husband! I have supported offices and business leaders in myriad types of organizations for the last 35 years. Though I have no children of my own, attending college later in life meant I had an opportunity to "adopt" a few young, idealistic college kids who I am as proud of today as any natural parent would be of how they've grown into lovely, successful adults who have children of their own now! I am looking very forward to assisting the parents and providers in any way I can to support the children, and to putting my skills and experience to work making it easier for them to enhance the lives of young children on a daily basis.
